No. 252. Newman and others, painting in error, vs. Virginia, Tennessee, and Carolina Steel and Iron Company, defendant in error, In error to Circuit Court Western Disrict of North Carolina. Cause argued by Charles A. Moore for plaintiff in error, and by Alfred S. Barnard for defendant in error, and sub-

This is an action of ejectment brought by the defendant in error to recover certain lands described in the complaint. There were two cases against different defendants, of whom the plaintiff in error was one. The cases were consoli-dated, and tried before Judge Simonton of the State of North Carolina to Wil-Ham Catheart, dated July 20, 1796, describing 61,000 acres, but containing an exception therein of 2,000 acres.

The defendant in error claimed that this truct was located south of what is known as the Wilkes line. This contention was denied by the plaintiff in error, who claimed that if the said tract could be located at all, the beginning corner and the closing line must be on the Wilkes-county line, and all the land lying north of said line; and that the plain-tiff in error had never been in possession of any land north of said Wilkes-county line. The land which the defendant claims, that the plaintiff wrongfully holds is shown by the evidence and the plat to be far south of the Wilkescounty line. There is a further conten-tion that even if the defendant in error could locate the 59,000-acre tract south of the Wilkes-county line, the evidence showed that it was too far west to cover the land of which the plaintiff is in pos-

"I was a complete wreck; appetite gone, nervous system impaired; could not sleep, and was so weak that I could not stand on my feet ten minutes." writes Miss Ella Bartley, of No. 213/5 South Grant Avenue, Columbus, Ohio: "I only weighed 95/2 pounds when I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. After I had taken a half bottle I began to improve; I could sleep soundly the whole night, and would awaken with an appetite for breakfast, which was a rare thing as I never had for two years back eaten a hearty breakfast. I now have an excellent appetite, and my friends say they never saw me looking better or in better spirits since they knew me. I tell them it is all due to Dr. Pierce's 'Discovery,' and I am so thankful and grateful that I never tire of praising his medicine every opportunity I get. I had about given up in despair, and nobody knows what those words imply, but those who have suffered—like I did for two long years. I was convinced that your medicine would help me, and I am here in person, a living testimonial of its merits."
